

SUPPLICATIONS

Daily Duas

HADITH

Verily your Lord is Generous and Shy.
If His servant raises his hands to Him (in supplication) He becomes Shy to return them empty.

(Tirmidhi)

OUR LORD HEARS

At the heart of every Dua, as at the heart of every worship, is sincerity and intention.

Rather than treating it as a ritual that is performed almost robotically without a thought or meaning, the foundation for Dua is the faith that our Creator hears our every word, knows our every thought and every deed that we have enacted. Even if we cannot express the words, our hearts will reveal what we are trying to say.

The Qur'an states: "Your Lord says, 'Call on Me and I will answer you'."
(Surah Ghafir Qur'an 40:60)

SUBMISSION AND ETIQUETTE

While a Dua can be said at any time, scholars have recommended that to maximise its benefit, there are certain etiquettes that should be practised. These include:

- Having sincerity, meekness and humbleness in front of Allah ﷻ
- Making it heartfelt and having full concentration on the Dua
- Facing the Qiblah (direction towards the Kaaba in Makkah)
- Being in a state of Wudhu
- Raising one's hands to Allah ﷻ
- Starting the Dua with praise to Allah ﷻ followed by salutations on the Prophet (Peace and Blessings be upon Him)
- Showing humility before Allah ﷻ
- Repeat each Dua three times
- To cry when making Dua to Allah ﷻ & to make Dua softly
- Using as many of Allah's ﷻ names as possible to call upon Him during the Dua
- Asking for repentance and forgiveness of sins and transgressions
- Keeping faith that Allah ﷻ hears your Dua and will accept it
- To pass the hands over the face at the end of the Dua
- Finishing the Dua with salutations to the Prophet (Peace and Blessings be upon Him) and say Aameen at the end.

Having been given all the means for salvation and redemption in the form of Dua, it is imperative that we make use of this most priceless of assets, not only at certain times but throughout our lives. Dua should be made in times of both difficulty & ease.

SEND SALAWAAT UPON THE MESSENGER OF ALLAH ﷺ

Indeed, Allah ﷻ and His angels send blessings to the Prophet (Peace and Blessings be upon Him). O you who believe, invoke Allah ﷻ to bless Him, and send your Salaam (prayer for his being in peace) to him in abundance.' (33:56)

What do the Salawaat mean?
صَلِّ (صَلَّى / الصَّلَاةُ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ)

O Allah ﷻ, have mercy upon Muhammad (Peace and Blessings be upon Him) and praise Him in the lofty assembly i.e. amongst the elite angels who are close to Allah ﷻ.

Salaah also means 'honour Him' i.e. honour Him in the world by elevating his mention, granting victory to his Deen and preserving his Shariah; and honour Him in the hereafter by rewarding Him abundantly, accepting His intercession on behalf of his Ummah and granting Him the loftiest station of glory (Maqaam e Mahmood). (Ibn Hajar quoting Halīmī in Fath al-Bārī)

سَلِّمْ (سَلَّمَ / السَّلَامُ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ)

O Allah ﷻ, send peace upon Muhammad (Peace and Blessings be upon Him); protect Him, keep Him safe from harm and take care of Him. Thus Salaah is the acquisition of all good and Salaam is the protection from all evil.

The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The closest of people to me on the Day of Judgement will be those who send the most Salaah upon me." (Tirmidhī)
